The Women's Movements in the United States and Britain from the 1790s to the 1920s Sep 19 2021 This book presents a study of the development of the feminist movement in Britain and America during the 19th century. Acknowledging the similar social conditions in both countries during that period, the author suggests that a real sense of distinctiveness did exist between British and American feminists. American feminists were inspired by their own perception of the superiority of their social circumstances, for example, whereas British feminists found their cause complicated by traditional considerations of class. Christine Bolt aims to show that the story of the American and British women's movement is one of national distinctiveness within an international cause. This book should be of interest to students and teachers of American and British political history and women's studies.

Bordered Writers Mar 26 2022 *Examines innovative writing pedagogies and the experiences of Latinx student writers at Hispanic-Serving Institutions nationwide. Bordered Writers explores how writing program administrators and faculty at Hispanic-Serving Institutions (HSIs) are transforming the teaching of writing to be more inclusive and foster Latinx student success. Like its 2007 predecessor, Teaching Writing with Latino/a Students, this collection contributes to ongoing conversations in writing studies about multicultural pedagogy and curriculum, linguistic diversity, and supporting students of color, while focusing further attention on the specific experiences and strategies of students and faculty at HSIs. Although members of Latinx communities comprise the largest underrepresented minority group in the nation, the needs and strengths of Latinx writers in college classrooms are seldom addressed. Bordered Writers thus helps to fill a critical gap, giving voice to past and present Latinx scholars, rhetoricians, and students, both in academic essays and in personal testimonios, in four pivotal areas: developmental English and bridge programs, first-year writing, professional and technical writing, and writing centers and mentored writing. Across contributions, the collection strives to connect all bordered writers and educators, making higher education today not only stronger but also more representative of the nation's population. Readers will come away with the tools and knowledge necessary to begin their own dialogue into what is possible when you follow a divine mission.

Healing met de engelen May 04 2020 Zeg: hierbij verbreek ik elke belofte van armoede die ik ooit gemaakt heb, in welk leven dan ook, en ik vraag om alle gevolgen van die beloftes ongedaan te maken in elke richting van tijd. Veel van de blokkades en problemen die ons belemmeren in ons leven kunnen opgeheven worden door daar gewoon bewust voor te kiezen. Doreen Virtue, auteur van onder andere Gesprekken met engelen, geeft ons in dit boek buitengewoon praktische inzichten en adviezen om die stap te zetten, zodat we steeds meer het goddelijke in onszelf kunnen toelaten. Daar worden wij in ondersteund door de engelen die altijd in onze nabijheid zijn. De bijzondere kracht van edelstenen, getallen en gebeden kan ons helpen met hen in contact te komen... Healing met engelen geeft ook inzicht in hoe deze kracht werkt en de taakverdeling van verschillende engelen, zodat we onze eigen intenties en bedoelingen 'vleugels' kunnen geven. We zijn met dank aan onze engelen altijd in staat tot meer dan we denken. Neem contact op met uw engelen. Verwacht wonderen.

Ángeles 101 : obra introductoria para conectar, trabajar y sanar con los ángeles Apr 26 2022 "¿Tienes un libro sobre los ángeles para alguien que es un principiante?" Era frecuente que en sus seminarios le hicieran a Doreen Virtue esa pregunta. En esos casos, lo que ella hacía era recomendarle la lectura de su libro Sanación con los ángeles, aun a sabiendas de que esta obra era un poco avanzada para neófitos. Una mañana vio y oyó con toda nitidez el título de Ángeles 101, Doreen supo que los ángeles querían que escribiese un libro básico cuyo tema central fuesen los seres celestiales. Por consiguiente, este libro está originado por un consejo angélico. Su contenido nos da una visión general y aconfesional de quiénes son los ángeles, de su papel en varios textos espirituales y religiosos, y de las distintas formas que tienen de ayudarnos; además, nos informa de los cometidos de los arcángeles y de los ángeles custodios, así como de la mejor manera de invocarlos. El libro termina con una relación de las preguntas más frecuentes sobre los ángeles."--Casadellibro.

Making Sense of History Apr 02 2020 Much more is known about the past that is interesting, valuable and relevant to our problems than any one of us can ever know. Making Sense of History proposes we focus on Five Zones of Priority: Livelihoods, Protection from violence, Freedom, Relationships, and Ideas. Partington examines some perennial problems, such as Progress or Regression, Bias, Prejudice and Moral Judgment, Depth versus Breadth and the ongoing fabrication of myths, and accusations of genocide and cannibalism. Partington warns against looking to history for the certainties that physics or mathematics provide. We have free will and make decisions rather than react uniformly to external forces. Historical understanding is more like proverbial wisdom writ large than the theorems of Pythagoras or Einstein. A more serious problem is the ideological capture of much history teaching in countries like Britain, the United States, Canada, Australia and New Zealand. Partington does not advocate vainglorious national pride but defends the achievement of those countries in making a better, though imperfect, balance between freedom and security than has been made at almost every other time or place.

Post-Materialist Religion Dec 11 2020 Post-Materialist Religion discusses the transformations of the individual's worldview, and the role religion and nature can play in contemporary European societies. In doing so, Mika Lassander brings into conversation sociological theories of secularisation and social-psychological theories of interpersonal relations, the development of morality, and the tenature of basic human values. European societies are marked by an ethos of secularism, whereby overt display of religiosity is generally considered objectionable or at least unusual, with the exception of special occasions or festivals. Post-Materialist Religion discusses how this ethos is criticised for oppressing the individual's right to religious expression, and for forgetting that religion is an integral part of society's cultural history and grounding for ethics and morality. Mika Lassander however argues that this ethos is a direct consequence of the cultural history itself and societal changes. He suggests that it is not a direct symptom of linear secularisation or of forgetting traditions, but an indication of the loss of relevance of 'religious aspects' such as beliefs and dogma, of traditional religions. Furthermore, he argues that it is not an indication of the loss of ethical value base, but, rather, a change in the value base itself and consequently the transformation of the legitimating framework of this value base.

Queering Tourism Mar 14 2021 Gay Pride parades are annual arenas of queer public culture, where embodied notions of subjectivity are sold, enacted, transgressed and debated. From Sydney to Rome, Queering Tourism analyses the paradoxes of gay pride parades as tourist events, exploring how the public display of queer bodies - the way they look, what they do, who watches them, and under what regulations - is profoundly important in constructing sexualized subjectivities of bodies and cities. Drawing on extensive collections of interviews, visuals and written media accounts, photographs, advertisements, and her own participation in these parades, Lynda Johnston gives a vibrant account of 'queer tourism' in New Zealand, Australia, Scotland and Italy. For each place, she looks at how the relationship between the viewer and the viewed produces paradoxical concepts of bodily difference, and considers how the queered spaces of gay pride parades may prompt new understandings of power and tourism. Examining the intersection of sexuality, space and tourism, and using empirical data gathered at gay pride parades such as the Sydney Mardi Gras, New Zealand HERO Parade and World Pride Roma 2000, this important work produces a deconstructive account of tourism and presents new ways of thinking through the powerful processes of subjectivity formation.
